Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

I have a cell phone only to have on hand in the event of an emergency. I am permanently disabled and in a wheelchair. Twice this cell phone has saved me when my wheelchair tipped over. Instead of laying on the ground in the back yard til my husband got home from work, I was able to get assistance in minutes instead of hours. This flat fee, not based on usage, may drive the price up so I could no longer afford to keep the cell phone. Please reject the proposal to move the USF collection system to a flat-fee.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Goode
